Eulogy of the Late JACQUELINE MUMBI KIMARU

Heaven has received a Gem, the angels are happy, God has taken the best at her prime age.

On 10th April 1986, heaven smiled and gifted the late Christopher Kimaru and Margaret Kiragu with a beautiful flower — Jacqueline Mumbi. For 39 years, she bloomed boldly, gently, and joyfully in their garden of life.

A beloved sister to the late Kenneth Karuri (Ras) — now reunited in the heavens — Angela Mugure, the cool sis who will miss her endlessly; Collins Kiragu, her choppie brother and forever protector; Patricia Njeri of Jibs Bistro Nanyuki and Kelvin Mwirigi of the Tours and Travel world; Victoria Kirigo, her number one client at Forever; the ever-ambitious Patrick Githaiga (mhesh loading) of the County Government of Nyeri; and the baby of the clan, Victoria Shiko — graduant in waiting.

She was also the fiancée of Saul Ongalo, with whom she shared warm dreams and gentle laughter.

An aunt to Jolene Nkatha and many more, a cousin, a niece, a granddaughter to the Karuris and the Kiragus — Mumbi was deeply woven into the fabric of her family. And oh, did they adore her! Mumbi was the uncontested life of the party — the spark that lit every family gathering, the one who made sure events were not just events, but memories.

Born and nurtured in the Catholic faith, Mumbi grew up faithfully reciting the rosary and the Novena — a rhythm of prayer that grounded her gentle spirit. Her journey began at Sisters of Mercy, Nairobi, before she spread her wings to Burguret Primary School. Eventually, she found herself at the iconic Kangubiri Girls High School, affectionately known as 'Kangu', and honestly, the baby girl vibes she radiated in her adult life? Yeah, they were minted right. After high school, she pursued her passion at Kenya Utalii College, and it made sense — her love for cooking, her soft spot for fine dining, and her effortless class. Mumbi didn't just enjoy good food; she understood it.

She lived it. She made it memorable.

After college, Mumbi built an admirable professional path. Everywhere she went, she left a mark — commendation letters, compliments, awards, and glowing recognitions followed her because her work ethic spoke louder than words.

Her career journey took her through Generation Grills Nairobi, Grand Regency Hotel, Sarova Panafric Nairobi, Pan Africa Express Transport Ltd, and finally Forever Living Company Nairobi, where she rose to the rank of Senior Manager and thrived until her untimely passing.

But titles alone cannot define Mumbi. She wasn't just a beauty and wellness coach — she was a mentor, a trainer, a motivator, and a woman who lifted others even as she climbed. She had a natural gift for marketing; her skills were truly unmatched. Sales and marketing weren't just her job — they were her language, her playground, her passion.

Eulogy of the Late JACQUELINE MUMBI KIMARU

Mumbi knew how to create opportunities, how to turn ideas into income, and above all, how to enjoy the life she was building along the way. And honestly... many of you here today probably have a Forever Living product in your homes, cars, bags — all courtesy of the one and only Mumbi. Mumbi lived only 39 years — but oh, did she live them fully. Every one of those years was vibrant, intentional, and filled with joy.

Her social life alone tells the story: Mumbi could relate with anyone, anywhere. She held no grudges, loved deeply, was kind to a fault, supportive without hesitation, and always the solution-oriented sweetheart in any room. Elegant. Classy. Flashy in her own effortless setup. What an admirable lady she truly was.

Her sense of style began early. As a baby, she would confidently toddle around in her mother's and aunties' high heels — as if she already knew that fashion would one day be part of her signature. No wonder she became a shoe lover, a true high-heels girl from the beginning.

Rotary Club of Syokimau

And then there's that story — the day the Rotarians lied to her that she was going for a calm, peaceful yoga session... only to ambush her with a full bootcamp workout! Do you remember that? The betrayal was premium. But that moment changed everything. From that one sneaky introduction, she became a true gym enthusiast — disciplined, energetic, and proud of maintaining her iconic size 6. Mumbi loved dancing — that spark started back in college when she joined the ballet club. She moved with grace, confidence, and a rhythm that came naturally. And when it came to the dance floor? Mumbi could get down comfortably in her heels, like the queen she was. Play “Kudade”, and you can bet Mumbi was already on her feet — smiling, glowing, and owning every beat. If Show me your friends and I will tell you who you are was a person then believe me that would have been Mumbi. Mumbi made friends from all walks of life.

Eulogy of the Late JACQUELINE MUMBI KIMARU

And everyone she met was very instrumental in her life. Mumbi was the true definition of a group baddie — in life and even in her passing — this has remained so clear. She belonged to the Mercedes Benz Club of Kenya from 2018. She was also a charter member of the Rotary Club of Syokimau since 2014, where she was the President Nominee for 2026–2027, and had previously served as the Sergeant-at-Arms

Did we mention that Mumbi loved the finer things in life? From fashion to food, from style to experiences, she embraced elegance with ease. And speaking of experiences... Mumbi was a true local and international traveler. Whether it was for work or leisure, she approached every journey with zeal and curiosity. She explored Marsabit, USA, Germany, South Africa, Kigali, Ethiopia, Holland, Dubai, Mexico, Paris, Rome, and many more — leaving her mark wherever she went and collecting memories like treasures along the way. Her love for travel was more than sightseeing; it was about immersing herself fully, learning, enjoying, and living life to the fullest.

Mumbi enjoyed a clean bill of health for the last 39 years, save for the occasional flu that would sometimes steal her voice. She trusted her supplements to just take away any pain because she truly believed in her products. On the fateful day, 11th November 2025, Mumbi suddenly collapsed and was, sadly, pronounced dead on arrival.

Salimia waliotutangulia including Ras, dad, cucu, guka, cousins, aunts na mpige sherehe moja bigi as you did here with us. We will hold her laughter, her bubblyness, her energy, her love — all of it — very close to our hearts.

Rest well Mumbi,
You were Loved Deeply & you will Forever be in our Hearts.

Tributes

Mum

My dear Mumbi, my precious child...

No words can truly express the pain of losing you. From the day you were born, you brought light, joy, and purpose into my life. You grew into a strong, kind, and generous woman whose heart held room for everyone. I am so proud of the person you became and the lives you touched.

As your mother, though my heart is broken, I have accepted God's will. I thank Him for the years we shared and for the love we will always carry. The work you have done for me and for the rest of the family will never be forgotten. You stood with us, uplifted us, and became a good role model to all who looked up to you.

You will remain my daughter, my pride, and my blessing forever.

Rest in peace, my child.

Sisters

Dear sister,

It still feels impossible to speak about you in the past tense. You were not just our sister – you were our friend, our guide, our quiet place, and our strength in so many moments. You carried each of us in your own special way, giving love generously and without hesitation.

You were the one who reminded us to check on each other, to forgive quickly, to stay close as a family. Your laughter could soften even the heaviest day, and your words often held more wisdom than you ever claimed to have.

We will miss the way you made every gathering feel whole.

We will miss your voice, your warmth, your kindness, and the gentle authority that came so naturally to you. Your absence leaves a gap that cannot be filled. But your memory – the way you loved, the way you sacrificed, the way you stood strong even in difficult seasons – will continue to guide us.

We promise to honour you by staying united, supporting one another, and living out the lessons you quietly taught us.

Rest well, dear sister.

You live on in each of us, in our hearts, our stories, and the love you left behind.

With love, Your sisters.

Brothers

Tribute from Her Brothers to Our Sister, Jacqueline Mumbi

As her brothers, we stand together with full hearts to honour our beloved sister, Jacqueline Mumbi. Jacqueline was more than our firstborn; he was our pillar, our example, and our voice of confidence whenever life felt heavy. She supported each of us in her own unique way. Jacqueline pushed us to dream bigger, to work harder, and to believe in ourselves even when we doubted. She taught us to think differently, to take risks, and to stay disciplined. In her, we saw what true ambition looks like.

But beyond her strength, she was fun, warm, and full of life. Jacqueline knew how to make us laugh, how to bring energy into a room, and how to make even ordinary days feel special. With her, we shared not just family ties, but genuine friendship. As her brothers, we are proud of the woman she was and grateful for every moment we shared with her. She shaped us. She protected us. She inspired us. And even though she is no longer physically with us, her spirit, her lessons, and her love remain deeply rooted in our lives. Jacqueline, thank you for being our big sister, our guide, and our strength. We will carry your light with us forever.

Rest in peace, our sister. You will always be in our hearts.

With love, Your Aunties & Uncles

Aunt Tabitha

Mumbi, Does it mean that death is final — that we shall not see you again? What really happened that you left us so untimely?

Our Kafloower, our 'Kamumbi Gaitu', as Uncle Jack would call you — we shall miss you dearly. How we wish there was a way for you to come back and your bedroom in our house? who will take your space now? Jeff and Collins still can not comprehend your demise.

My women Chama members will miss you deeply; you were our go-to person for Forever products. The moment you appeared in our gatherings, the fun and laughter always followed.

Only God knows how, why, and what led to all this.

May God grant your mother and siblings the grace to face tomorrow and tomorrow's tomorrow.

Cousins

Mumbi

I remember when she once visited us at our home in Gatugi, my sister and I clung to her from that day on because we were captivated by her beauty, energy, and presence. She always knew the latest trends, and I'm reminded of when the "helicopter" dance was popular in Kenya; she taught it to me and my siblings with such enthusiasm. She was always up to date, always bringing excitement, and always pushing you to step out of your comfort zone. Mumbi blended effortlessly with everyone. Even if you had nothing to say, being around her never felt awkward, she made every conversation interesting. She knew she was meant for greatness. No matter the challenges life placed in her path, she walked forward confidently, believing wholeheartedly that she deserved the best. She chased her dreams fiercely, eventually buying her dream car. She wore her heels every day because, to her, every day was worth celebrating; her short, elegant dresses highlighted legs that truly deserved admiration.

She commanded the room the moment she stepped in.

Mumbi, you left a mark in our lives that time will never erase. Thank you for being a trendsetter and for showing us what true confidence and fearless living look like.

"When she stepped out of the car like a runway model, my cousin whispered, 'Huyo ni Mumbilicious mpaka ushangae.'"

Rest in peace, dear cousin.

Small Cousins from the US

Thank you, Mumbi. Even though many of the memories we shared were small, they were the best I've ever had.

May you rest in peace. Jeremiah

Mumbi, you always inspired me to fulfill whatever it was that I wanted to do. I saw a part of myself in you, and it hurts to see you go so soon. You were taken from us too early, and it saddens me that you will never get to see me grow and fill your shoes.

Rest easy Mumbi.

Aunt Ann & Uncle Maina

Our dear brilliant Mumbi, your light brightened every room you entered. You were hardworking and kind, a rare soul who never spoke ill of another, choosing compassion over cruelty in every moment. Your love knew no boundaries, embracing all with warmth and genuine care, and your bright future seemed limitless to those who knew you.

Mumbi, you lived life to the fullest, savoring each moment, chasing dreams with perseverance and grace. Your laughter was a gift, and a reminder of joy even in the hardest days. Your voice carried kindness, a steady beacon that made others feel seen and valued. Your love formed connections that will endure far beyond your days, a legacy that will continue to bless those left behind.

Your departure has shocked us and left us speechless, a silence that speaks to the depth of our loss. Yet in that silence, we feel your presence. We will miss you profoundly, your laughter, your voice, your kindness, and the love you so freely gave.

May you rest with the peace you deserve, knowing how deeply you were cherished and how enduring your impact will be. Your memory will continue to inspire us to live with the same brightness, courage, and heart you shared with the world and us.

Saul Ongalo

Dear Pinky,

Today, I honor you, Jacqueline Mumbi, my beloved fiancé and dear “Pinky”. Since we met in 2018, you brought immeasurable light, joy, and a profound sense of belonging into my life. You were more than a partner — you were my closest friend, confidant, and unwavering source of strength. With open arms and an open heart, you embraced of Eric and Ethan — “your love children”, showering them with motherly love and care; “my sons” you always proudly referred to them.

Together, we embarked on unforgettable journeys—from trips to Europe, “night rider” drives to Bungoma where you loved to rest and host friends, to adventurous road trips to Nanyuki, Kigali, Marsabit, Diani among many other destinations. You loved the nyama from my grill which you shared with numerous friends. We dreamed together, worked as a team on countless projects, faced challenges with courage, and celebrated many successes. Your kindness, generosity, and steadfast support taught me the true meaning of love. You faced life’s difficulties with grace and courage, inspiring me always to be my best self.

On that heartbreaking day, November 11, 2025, you took your last breath in my arms. Though the pain is overwhelming, I am grateful you chose to share your final moment with me. We had many plans for our relationship and life together in 2026 as you turned 40 and beyond; unfortunately, our journey has been cut short, but the love, laughter, and dreams we built are everlasting. “Mr. President, Plumber, Hun” is the way you started every conversation with me; I will miss your powerful entry, elegant dressing, calls, texts, warm presence, sense of industry, hearty laughter, powerful sales pitches, every “tupige selfie” moments, compassion, warm hugs, deep conviction and commitment. You will always be my forever love, my guiding star, and the light that shines brightest even in the darkest moments.

Thank you, my love, for choosing me, for loving me deeply, and for being the incredible person you were. I vow to honor your memory by living with the same passion, kindness, and strength you gave so freely. Until we meet again, you will forever hold the most precious place in my heart.

On your behalf I would like to convey my heartfelt gratitude to: The Mercedes Benz Club of Kenya, Rotary Club of Syokimau, Forever Living Kenya, Kangubiri Girls – Classmates, 360 Degrees Phase One – Syokimau Neighbors, Achongo & Njeremani Families, our many friends, communities and colleagues for the glowing tributes and support in ensuring that your last journey was befitting. Yours Truly - Mr. President

JACQUELINE MUMBI TRIBUTE

Sorrow fills our hearts this sad moment, a sorrow that is deep and personal. Jacqueline Mumbi has silently closed the door of life and departed from us. Our lives will be empty in the areas that she had brightened for us.

Albert Einstein said, "The value of a man should be seen in what he gives and not in what he is able to receive." In one word, Mumbi was a lady who gave. She gave much to her work, business engagements with other partners, her passion in what she did and believed in. Here was a life that demand notice...a life that exemplified brilliance...a life that inspired emulation...a life that burned so that others' paths were lit.

We at Forever Living Products (FLP) family have known Mumbi since 2013. Since then, it has been an amazing journey of her growing in our Marketing Plan. She was a strategic thinker, a visionary who was brilliant, innovative and creative always ready to share her mind openly. As such, she contributed much to the development of the Forever Living Products brand over the years. She generously gave us her knowledge, her expertise, her skills, something that was felt when she took us through product training sessions, she particularly loved our Infinite Skincare Range and would sell it so passionately.

Jacqueline Mumbi was living proof of how fine a person can be. She was a good team player to her team, a good friend to many of us and a great colleague. The character of the life she lived might be summed up in a few words: she was sincere, she was earnest, she was loyal.

By her death all the people who knew her will miss a highly intelligent, vibrant individual with a rare friendliness and charm of personality. Our sorrow is lessened only slightly with the comforting thought that we had the privilege to know her.

RIP, Jacqueline Mumbi.

A tribute to our beloved Mumbi from The Mercedes Benz Club of Kenya

Today, we stand together as a family bound not only by a love for the three pointed star, but by the light of one extraordinary soul who carried that spirit far better than any machine ever could.

Today, we honour Mumbi our sister, our friend, our heartbeat in the crowd.

Mumbi joined MBCK in 2018. She was the kind of person whose presence you felt before you even saw her. She walked into any room with a warmth that softened even the hardest edges. Her kindness was effortlessly woven into how she spoke, how she laughed, how she listened, and how she made every person feel seen.

Her kindness was effortlessly woven into how she spoke, how she laughed, how she listened, and how she made every person feel seen. She had this rare and beautiful gift of gathering people, of creating space, of making sure no one ever got left behind.*

Her zeal for the club was unmatched. She served as the communications lead of She's Mercedes in 2022. She didn't just participate, she lifted. She showed up early, stayed late, encouraged members, rallied teams, and infused every activity with joy and genuine commitment. She embodied the true DNA of the Mercedes Benz Club: excellence, unity, loyalty, and heart.

Losing her so suddenly has knocked the breath out of us. It will take us time, perhaps a long time to truly accept her absence. There will be moments at events where we will instinctively look for her smile, her energy, her gentle humor... only to remember she is no longer beside us in the physical sense.

In the laughter she sparked.

In the friendships she strengthened.

In the people she made feel welcome.

In the warmth she poured into our community with a generosity that expected nothing back.

In the spirit of togetherness she championed without ever saying a word.

We loved her more than we ever said out loud. And we wish we had said it louder, earlier, more often.

Our hearts break knowing she is gone, yet they swell with gratitude because we had the privilege of knowing her at all.

You will be truly, deeply, eternally missed.

And though it hurts now, we hold onto the hope that one day, in God's perfect time, we will meet again.

Until then, rest well, dear sister.

Rest knowing you forever changed us.

Rest knowing that your light, your laughter, and your love remain part of this family, always.

She stood firmly for what was right, and she was the kind of person who didn't just dream of solutions; she found a way to make things happen.*

Jacky (Mumbi) was a bubbly, unstoppable spirit who made every meetup brighter; arrived with dramatic, hilarious stories and left us happier than we came. We still struggle to accept that we're writing a tribute instead of sharing another laugh.*

Jacky was beloved for her cheekiness, love of dance and music, contagious enthusiasm, deep laughter, and radiant smile. She gave herself wholly, a walking resource for life and health, and family to all of us—reminding us of our beauty, grit, and the importance of family, both real and chosen.
